Make History: Healing America with Health Care for All

9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 21 in Denver

(Pipefitters local union hall, 6350 Broadway, Denver, CO 80216)

- Come seize this opportunity to gather together and share all that has been happening in the burgeoning movement for improved Medicare for All. Meet new activists and discover ways to grow the movement for universal health care.
- Keynote speakers representing a diversity of social justice movements will inspire us as we recognize our part in the greater effort to restore our values and democracy.
- T.R. Reid, author of “The Healing of America,” will emcee this active, hands-on day. Participate in roundtable discussions and join teams of volunteers for breakout sessions on how to make progress all year.
- Learn more about the conference agenda, speakers, and breakout sessions and register at the Foundation’s website: www.couniversalhealth.org

Cost is $30, which includes a continental breakfast and full lunch. Scholarships are available, and no one who cannot pay will be turned away. Please join us and encourage others supporting social justice to attend!
